THE STAG
Some call him mysterious.
Others deem him sophisticated.
Although both may be debatably true,
one thing is for certain;
He's the last remaining embodiment of chivalry today.
The Stag is a man of taste.
His choice of attire
is carefully tailored from the finest fabrics.
His choice of drink
is wisely selected from the richest barrels.
And his decision for accommodation must match his appearance; a masculine warmth,
with a scent of sophistication and a hint of mystery.

The Sultan

His presence is felt, not seen.
His appearance is admired, never imitated.

He emanates royalty,
but speaks not of opulence.

The eloquence in his speech and elegance in his stance can tell you more about him than anything they have ever written.

An individual who beckons the attention of a room with the mere mention of his name,

The Sultan is truly a noble character.

And because of that,The Sultan deserves nothing short of the richest in woven masterpieces draped over the most plush of cushions to accommodate his regal night.
